

NASA Aeronautics and Space Database Registration Form

Individual access to the NASA Aeronautics and Space Database is available to NASA employees and prime contractors, as well as other Federal government employees and prime contractors registered at the NASA Center for AeroSpace Information (CASI) with an authorized IP address. For access, please complete all sections and use the contact information at the right to mail or fax the form to CASI.

Attention: Registration
NASA Center for AeroSpace Information
7115 Standard Drive
Hanover, MD 21076-1320
Fax: 443-757-5803

Users must notify CASI if and when an association with NASA or other Federal government agency is no longer valid. Please note that this is an individual registration. Any information that is provided by CASI to individuals should not be shared with others. This includes all user IDs and passwords.

All information on this form is subject to audit at any time. CASI will verify your Internet Protocol (IP) address and, if applicable, your citizenship and contract status. Upon verification and approval, you will receive your user ID and password to access the database at <http://access.sti.nasa.gov>. The database contents are presented as bibliographic citations and full-text documents, which—depending on availability—you may view online, download, purchase, or request to have scanned for downloading.

Please contact us at 443-757-5802 or help@sti.nasa.gov if you have any questions. Also, check the NASA scientific and technical information (STI) Web site at <http://www.sti.nasa.gov> for other NASA STI products and services.
